The U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit Clerk's Office offers an opportunity for self-motivated individuals with a strong work ethic to launch or continue a career in public service. Our prestigious environment consists of challenging and rewarding work, and the potential for advancement for bright people with strong initiative.

POSITION SUMMARY: The Office of the Clerk, U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit, is seeking a highly qualified, reliable individual to serve as CM/ECF Analyst.

RESPONSIBILITIES: The incumbent assists in the design, implementation, development of policies and procedures, and training for the overall operation of the new Case Management/Electronic Case Filing (CM/ECF) system. The incumbent works closely with the CM/ECF Project Manager and team members analyzing design documentation, developing and testing the application's data dictionary, preparing user documentation and training resources, providing hands-on user training, and to ensure the integrity and quality of case-related databases. The incumbent may be required to assist with the preparation and distribution of the Court's statistical reports and provide after-hours administrative duty for emergency matters.

QUALIFICATIONS: Demonstrated experience in word processing, web-based environments, and data entry are required. Familiarity with electronic case filing, especially the CM/ECF (Case Management/Electronic Case Filing) system, and requirement's analysis is preferable. Good judgment, the ability to apply concepts to determine what action needs to be taken, oral and written communication skills, the ability to interact with technical and non-technical staff, and good proofreading skills are essential. Excellent tact, organizational skills, the ability to handle a high volume of work and prioritize are essential.

The applicant must be a high school graduate or equivalent. In addition, applicant must have a minimum of two years general experience plus three years specialized experience in automation, case administration, quality control, and statistics. To be considered for placement at salary levels above minimum up to and including step 25, considering competitive factors and an evaluation of quality of experience, applicant must have more than three years specialized experience. Experience in a court or legal setting is mandatory. Applicant must have effective oral and writing skills appropriate for communicating with judicial officers, court staff, and litigants.

TERMS: The first year of employment is considered a probationary period.

REQUIREMENTS: Because the D.C. Circuit entertains a large number of high-profile and sealed cases, employees are subject to strict confidentiality requirements. In addition, employment is contingent upon the completion and satisfactory results of a background records check.

The successful applicant must be a United States citizen or eligible to work for the United States. All positions in the Clerk's Office are excepted appointments and are "at will." The United States Court of Appeals is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer. The selected applicant will be subject to mandatory electronic transfer of funds for payment of net pay. The United States Courthouse is a smoke-free building.
